Over a century ago, the Baha'i Faith in Canada experienced a most significant event, taking place at this time of year in Montreal in 1912.

'Abdu'l-Baha – son of Baha'u'llah, the Founder of the Baha'i Faith – made an historic visit to the first Baha'i community in Canada, delivering several public addresses on Peace and Justice.

The name Baha'u'llah means 'Glory of God', and the name 'Abdu'l-Baha means 'Servant of Glory'.

The Baha'i Faith began in Persia in the middle of the nineteenth century, and spread to over 200 nations. Its aim is World Unity – viewed as the requirement for peace, justice and prosperity for all people everywhere.

- What did Abdu'l-Baha teach about North America and the issues of racial and gender equality?
- How can we in Abbotsford contribute to the process of building greater equality?
